AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE

PLEASE REVIEW THIS PROVISION CAREFULLY; IT AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

Either you or us may choose to have any claim or dispute resolved through arbitration rather than in court.

Arbitration of a dispute results in loss of any right to participate in a class action lawsuit related to the claims arbitrated.

Claims Subject to Arbitration; Class Action Waiver

If there is a claim or dispute between you or us arising from or related in any way to any account, product, or service, other than a loan, either you or we may require the claim or dispute be resolved through binding arbitration before a neutral party instead of a lawsuit or other resolution in court. This includes all past, present, and future claims, including claims that arose before this provision became effective.

If either you or us requires the claim or dispute to be resolved through arbitration, it will be subject to arbitration even if the other party does not agree. This arbitration provision will apply irrespective of whether the claim or dispute arises under contract, tort, statute, or any other basis. Such claim or dispute shall be arbitrated on an individual basis and not in a class action. You and we waive any right to arbitrate disputes as part of a class action. If a class action lawsuit is initiated against us, you agree that this provision applies to such action and if we require claims covered by the class action to be arbitrated, you will withdraw from or agree to dismissal of the class action and allow your claim to be arbitrated on an individual basis.

Claims Not Subject to Arbitration

A claim filed against either you or us in small claims court in Oregon is excluded from this arbitration requirement as long as the claim remains in small claims court as an individual claim and not a class action. In addition, no claim is subject to this arbitration requirement if you are an active-duty armed service member.

Arbitration Procedures

Either you or us may require arbitration of a claim or dispute even if you or us has already initiated legal action related to the claim or dispute. The arbitration may be required and initiated by: (i) making written demand for arbitration on the other party; (ii) initiating an arbitration proceeding against the other party; or (iii) filing a motion to compel arbitration in a court in which litigation has already begun. The arbitration shall be conducted pursuant to the Consumer Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration shall take place in the federal judicial district in which you reside, or in which you entered into this Agreement. We will reimburse the amount of filing, case management, administration, and arbitrator fees you pay to the arbitration organization and the arbitrator that exceed $250, to a maximum of $5000, unless the arbitration rules or arbitrator's decision requires us to pay more. We will not reimburse any fees if the arbitrator determines that your claim or dispute was frivolous or baseless. Each party shall be responsible for its own fees in any arbitration unless the arbitrator awards attorney fees under applicable law or agreement. More information about the AAA rules and procedures is available at www.adr.org or by phone at 800.778.7879.

This arbitration provision and any arbitration conducted under it are governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.) and are not subject to any state law related to arbitration.

Right to Reject this Agreement to Arbitration of Claims and Disputes.

You may opt out of this agreement to arbitrate if you tell us within 30 days after: (i) the opening of your initial Account or (ii) your receipt of a notice of change in terms informing you of this Agreement, whichever is later. To opt out, send us written notice including your name as listed on your account, your account number, and a statement that you reject the Agreement to Arbitration of Claims and Disputes. You must send your written notice to: Rivermark Community Credit Union, 14405 Meyers Road, Oregon City, OR 97045.

Acceptance of Arbitration and Class Action Waiver

Your decision not to reject this Agreement as confirmed by your continued use of your Account constitutes your consent to the Agreement to Arbitration of Claims and Disputes provision for all of your accounts and services.

BUSINESS SERVICE AND PRICING SCHEDULE

Note: This disclosure covers accounts currently offered by the credit union. The Service and Pricing Schedule for discontinued products is available upon request.

1. Rate Information – The Interest and Annual Percentage Yield on your deposit accounts are stated on the Business Deposit Rate Sheet and may change at any time as determined by us. For all Certificates of Deposit, the Interest Rate and APY are fixed and will be in effect for the term of the Account. The APY is a percentage rate that reflects the total amount of interest to be paid on an account based on the interest rate and frequency of compounding for an annual period. The APY is based on the assumption that interest will remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal of interest will reduce earnings. The Business Checking, Business Checking Plus, Business Money Market, and Business High Yield Money Market accounts are tiered. Each Interest Rate and APY are stated on the Rate Sheet and, once you meet the applicable balance requirement, will apply to all funds in the account.

2. Compounding and Crediting – The Rate Sheet describes the time frames for compounding and crediting interest.

3. Balance Information – The minimum balance required to open each account and earn the APY is stated on the Rate Sheet. For all accounts, interest is calculated by the daily balance method, which applies a daily periodic rate to the full amount of principal in the account each day.

4. Accrual of Interest – Interest will begin to accrue on cash deposits and on non-cash deposits (e.g. checks) on the business day you make the deposit to your account.

5. Transaction Limitations – For Certificates of Deposit, if the account falls below the minimum balance, it may be closed, and the remaining funds will be transferred to your Business Savings account.

6. Maturity – Your account will mature on the maturity date stated on your Certificate of Deposit Receipt.

7. We may impose an Early Withdrawal Penalty for Certificates of Deposit if you withdraw any principal before the maturity date.

Penalty Amount is based on the schedule below:

Certificate Term	Penalty on Withdrawn Amount
365 days or less	90 days interest
Terms of 366 to 730 days	180 days interest
Terms of 731 days or longer	270 days interest

How the Penalty Works – The penalty is a forfeiture of the interest that has been or would be earned at the account Interest Rate. It applies whether or not the interest has been earned. If the account has not yet earned enough interest or if the interest has already been paid, the penalty will be deducted from the principal.

Exceptions to Early Withdrawal Penalties – We may choose to pay the account before maturity with no early withdrawal penalty when an account owner dies or is determined legally incompetent by a court or other body of competent jurisdiction.

8. Renewal Policy – Unless otherwise disclosed on your Certificate of Deposit Receipt, all Certificate of Deposit accounts automatically renew to interest rates in effect at the time of maturity for the applicable term. Renewable accounts have a grace period of seven (7) business days after maturity to withdraw funds with no early withdrawal penalty.

9. Fees – See the Business Fee Schedule for a list of fees and charges applicable to your accounts.

10. All accounts are Nontransferable and Nonnegotiable – The funds in your account may not be pledged to secure any obligation of an owner, except with the Credit Union.

11. Membership – As a condition of membership, you must maintain a $5.00 membership deposit.

12. Account Not Funded – Failure to fund an account within 30 days with at least the minimum required deposit listed on the Rate Sheet will be subject to closure by the credit union.

2. Time periods for payment and maintenance of membership share. A member who fails to complete payment of one (1) membership share within 30 days of their approved membership application, or within 30 days from the increase of the par value of membership shares, or a member who reduces the membership share balance below the par value of (1) membership share and does not increase the balance to at least the par value of (1) membership share within 30 days of the reduction may be terminated from membership and subject to fees.

3. Individual Account. The Account Owner of a business account is the business. A business may be owned by a person (sole proprietor) or an entity such as a corporation, partnership, trust, or other organization qualified for Credit Union membership. Each business account is considered an individual account regardless of whether it is owned by a person or an entity and regardless of whether there is more than one authorized signer.

a. Death of (Sole Proprietor) Account Owner. You agree that upon your death, your account ownership interest will pass, subject to applicable law, to your estate or payable on death (POD) beneficiary, if applicable. We may require any claimant to the account to produce certain documents before releasing the funds in the account. The Credit Union may continue to honor all transfers, withdrawals, deposits, and other transactions on the account until the Credit Union learns of an account owner's death. Once the Credit Union learns of an account owner's death, the Credit Union may pay checks or honor other payments, or transfer orders authorized by the deceased member for a period of ten (10) days unless the Credit Union receives instructions from any person claiming an interest in the account to stop payment on the checks or other items. You agree that the Credit Union can require that anyone who claims funds in the account after your death to indemnify the Credit Union for any losses resulting from honoring that claim. Upon the death of the account owner (Sole Proprietor) the authority of any authorized signers is terminated.

b. Rivermark Community Standards. All members are required to comply with the Rivermark Community Standards included in this agreement and published on our website. Members that have been found to be in violation of these Standards may be subject to suspension of services or expulsion.

4. Accounts of Business Organizations. You must designate on the Account Card who is authorized to act on behalf of the Account Owner. You agree to notify the Credit Union of any change in authority. The Credit Union may rely on the written authorization until such time as the Credit Union is informed of changes in writing and has had a reasonable time to act upon such notice. The Credit Union may require that third party checks payable to a business may not be cashed but must be deposited to the account. The Credit Union shall have no notice of any breach of fiduciary duties arising from a transaction by any agent of the account owner unless the Credit Union has actual notice of any wrongdoing.

5. Certificate of Authority

a. Name. The identified business, entity, and/or organization shown on the front of the Business Account Card is the complete and correct name of the Account Owner.

b. Authorized Signers. The listed officers, authorized agents, or trustees are shown on the Business Account Card and are authorized to transact business on behalf of the Account Owner ("Authorized Signers"). An owner of the business is an Authorized Signer who also has an equity interest in the Account Owner as identified on the Account Card ("Owner"). An Owner is vested with full authority to open and close accounts on behalf of the Account Owner and transact any business of any nature on such accounts.

c. Authority.

i. Authorized Signers, by signing the Business Account Card certify and agree that the Account Owner's accounts will be governed by the terms of this Agreement, as amended from time to time.

ii. The Credit Union is directed to accept and pay without further inquiry any withdrawal or item, bearing the appropriate signatures as indicated on the Business Account Card, drawn against any of the Account Owner's accounts with the Credit Union.

iii. Any one Authorized Signer is expressly authorized to endorse all checks, notes and other items payable at the Credit Union, authorize any withdrawals, and to execute such other agreements, including opening and closing accounts under the business membership, and to perform such other acts as they deem reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement. The Credit Union may permit Owners to limit the authority of Authorized Signers.

iv. The authority given to the Authorized Signers shall remain in full force until written notice of revocation is delivered to and received by the Credit Union in time for the Credit Union to act upon the notice. Any such notice shall not affect any items in process at the time notice is given. An authorized officer, trustee, or agent of the Account Owner will notify the Credit Union of any change in the Account Owner's composition, assumed business names, or any aspect of the entity affecting the deposit relationship between the Account Owner and the Credit Union before any such change occurs. The Account Owner agrees that the Credit Union shall not be liable for any losses due to the Account Owner's failure to notify the Credit Union of such changes.

6. Deposit Requirements. Funds may be deposited to any account in any manner approved by the Credit Union in accordance with the requirements set forth on the Deposit Rate Sheet and Fee Schedule. All accounts are nonassignable and nonnegotiable to third parties. Certificate accounts are governed by the terms of this Agreement and the terms and disclosures on your Certificate of Deposit Receipt and our Business Services & Price Schedule Disclosure, which is incorporated herein by this reference. You agree not to deposit any substitute check or similar item that you have created, or for which no financial institution has provided any substitute check warranties and indemnity. If you do so, you agree to indemnify the Credit Union for all losses the Credit Union incurs in connection with the substitute check or item. You agree not to deposit any substitute check without our consent. We may refuse to accept any check or other item for deposit for any reason.

a. Endorsements. You authorize the Credit Union, in its discretion, to accept items for deposit into any of your accounts. You authorize us to supply missing endorsements if we choose to supply such endorsements. The Credit Union reserves the right to verify all endorsements on third party checks presented for deposit either in person or by comparison with member signature files and to require you to meet any endorsement requirements on insurance, government, or other checks or drafts. Endorsements must be placed in the space on the back of the check between the top edge and 1½ inches from the top edge. The Credit Union may accept drafts or checks with endorsements outside this space. However, if any such endorsement or other markings you or any prior endorser make on the check cause any delay or error in processing the item for payment, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union due to the delay or error. If we offer a remote deposit capture service and you have been approved to use the service to make deposits to your account, you agree that, prior to transmitting check or draft images, you will restrictively endorse each original check or draft in accordance with any other agreement with us that governs this service.

b. Restrictive Legends. Some checks contain restrictive legends or similar limitations on the front of the item. Examples of restrictive legends include "two signatures required", "void after 60 days", or "not valid over $500". We are not liable for payment of any check contrary to a restrictive legend or other limitation contained in or on the item unless we have specifically agreed in writing to the restrictions or limitations.

c. Collection of Items. In handling items for deposit or collection, the Credit Union only acts as your agent and assumes no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. The Credit Union shall not be responsible for deposits made by mail or at an unstaffed facility until the Credit Union receives them. The Credit Union will not be liable for default or negligence of any correspondent or for loss in transit, and each correspondent will only be liable for its own negligence. The Credit Union reserves the right to send any item for collection.

d. Final Payment. All items or Automated Clearing House ("ACH") transfers credited to your account are provisional and subject to our receipt of final payment. If final payment is not received, we reserve the right to charge your account for the amount of those items or ACH transfers and impose a return charge on your account. After we have received final payment, we refer to the deposits as collected items. If the Credit Union incurs any fee to collect any item, we may charge such fee to your account. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse or to return all or any item or funds transfer. We shall have the right to charge back against your account all previously deposited items or other items endorsed by you that are returned to the Credit Union unpaid, regardless of whether the amount of the item has been available for your use.

e. Direct Deposits. The Credit Union may offer direct deposit options allowing you to preauthorize deposits) or preauthorize transfers from other accounts at the Credit Union. You must authorize any direct deposits or preauthorized transfers by completing a separate authorization. You must notify us if you wish to cancel or change a direct deposit or preauthorized transfer. Any cancellation or change will become effective once we receive notice from you and have a reasonable period of time to act on your request. If you file bankruptcy and fail to cancel any direct deposit authorization, your failure to cancel at that time will be an instruction to the Credit Union to treat those subsequent deposits as voluntary payments and apply them in accordance with your authorization on file with the Credit Union. If the Credit Union is required to reimburse the U.S. Government for any benefit payment directly deposited into your account for any reason, you agree the Credit Union may deduct the amount returned from any of your accounts, unless prohibited by law.

f. Crediting of Deposits. Deposits will be credited to your account on the day we consider them received. For accounts not governed by our Funds Availability Policy, deposits made on Saturdays, Sundays, and Credit Union holidays will generally be credited to your account on the next business day. Ask for our current deposit cutoff time. Deposits received through the mail or at unstaffed facilities such as night depositories will be credited on the day the items are removed and processed by the Credit Union and are subject to adjustment based on our verification of the items deposited. Items drawn from an institution located outside the United States are handled on a collection basis only.

g. Checks Presented for Payment In Person. We may refuse to accept any check drawn on your account that is presented for payment in person. Such refusal shall not constitute a wrongful dishonor of the check, and we shall have no liability for refusing payment.

7. Account Access.

a. Authorized Signature. To access any account, the Credit Union must have an authorized signature of yours on a Business Account Card. We will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction of yours if we believe in good faith that the signature on such item or instruction is not genuine. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature, the Credit Union may honor any check that appears to bear your facsimile signature even if it was made by an unauthorized person. If you give your account number, an access device or PIN to a third party, you authorize us to honor transactions initiated by the third party even if you did not specifically authorize a particular transaction.

b. Access Options. You may make withdrawals or transfers from your account in any manner which is permitted by us (i.e., check, automated teller machines (ATMs), debit card, in person, by mail, automatic transfer, telephone or Online Banking). If the Credit Union accepts any check or draft that is not drawn on a form provided through the Credit Union, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union for handling the check. The Credit Union may return as unpaid any check that is not provided through the Credit Union.

c. Electronic Checks. If you authorize a merchant to electronically debit your checking account using the routing, account and serial number of your check to initiate a transfer, whether the check is blank, partially or fully completed and signed, such authorization is an electronic check conversion. An electronic check conversion is an electronic funds transfer (EFT) subject to the terms of Section III, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. You authorize us to honor any electronic check conversion from your checking account just the same as a regular written check.

d. Electronic Re-presented Checks. If you write a check on an account that we return unpaid because of insufficient or unavailable funds, the payee or any subsequent holder of the check may re-present the check to us, through an electronic instruction (Electronic Re-presented Check) to charge your account for the amount of the check. If we receive an electronic re-presented check, we will pay or return the electronic re-presented check as if the original paper check was presented to us. Any collection fee you authorize the merchant to debit from your account is an electronic funds transfer subject to the terms of Section III, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. If you want to reverse an electronic re-presented check, you must give us an affidavit within 15 days after we send or make available to you the periodic statement that reflects payment of that electronic re-presented check. In your affidavit, you must declare and swear under oath that the electronic re-presented check was ineligible or unauthorized. If we receive a proper notice or affidavit from you within the 15-day period, we will recredit your account with the amount of the charge. If you wish to stop payment of any electronic re-presented check, you must follow the procedures contained in this agreement for stopping payment of checks, not the procedures for stopping payment on electronic loan or bill payments. If you ask us to request the depositor's bank to send us the original paper check or a copy of the paper check, and we provide it to you, you agree that you will not seek to have your account recredited due to a prior stop payment order or if the item is otherwise ineligible for collection.

e. ACH and Domestic Wire Transfers. If offered, you may originate or receive credits or debits to your account via wire or ACH transfer. Any authorized signer may amend or cancel a payment order regardless of whether that person originated the order. We may refuse requests to amend or cancel a payment order that we believe will expose the credit union to liability or loss. You agree that if you receive funds by a wire or ACH transfer, the Credit Union is not required to notify you at the time the funds are received. Instead, the transfer will be shown on your periodic statement. You have two banking days following the date to report an unauthorized ACH debit post to your account. The Credit Union may receive an early notification of your pending direct deposit which may appear in your account history and balance as funds not yet available for withdrawal. In these cases, the funds have not yet been received by the Credit Union from the originator of the transfer. The Credit Union may provisionally credit your account for an ACH transfer before it receives final settlement for the transfer. You agree that if the Credit Union does not receive final settlement for a transfer, it may reverse the provisional credit to your account, or you will refund the amount to the Credit Union. If you receive funds erroneously, you understand that you may be held responsible for any funds that you use which do not belong to you. This may occur if an originator of a transfer provides incorrect information to the originating financial institutions. You are responsible for reporting erroneous transfers on your account in the time frame noted under the Statement Examination section. We reserve the right to return the funds to the originator or correct the transaction by transferring to the correct beneficiary. We reserve the right to refuse to execute any payment order to transfer funds to or from your account. We are not obligated to execute any payment order to transfer funds out of your account if the amount of the requested transfer plus applicable fees, exceeds the availability balance in your account. In addition, we will not be liable for consequential, special, punitive, or indirect loss or damage you may incur in connection with fund transfers to or from your account. You agree to hold us harmless from and indemnify us for all losses and expenses resulting from an actual or attempted amendment or cancellation of a payment order. A telephone wire transfer may be initiated by you to another account at another institution if you are listed as beneficiary on that account. Every effort will be made to identify the member over the telephone. The Credit Union may require an authorization signed in person or a Wire Transfer Service Agreement. Wire requests initiated by email or FAX will not be accepted. The Credit Union (and other institutions) may rely on the account or other identifying number you give as the proper identification number, even if it identifies a different party or institution. The Credit Union reserves the right to confirm or verify information on all wire requests prior to sending the wire. Once the Credit Union has sent an outgoing wire, the transfer is final and cannot be stopped. If you provide incomplete or inaccurate transfer instructions, written or oral, the Credit Union will not be responsible for any resulting wire transfer losses, delays or failed transactions. Terms and conditions for international wire transfers will be provided at the time of the transfer transaction. Domestic wire transfers are governed by the Uniform Commercial Code Section 4A as enacted by the state where the headquarters of the Credit Union is located and Federal Reserve Regulation J if the transfer is cleared through the Federal

f. Reserve. ACH transactions are governed by the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association. You agree that the authorized transfer to or from your account must comply with all applicable federal and state laws or regulations including OFAC (Office of Foreign Assets Control) regulations.

g. Credit Union Examination. The Credit Union may disregard information on any check other than the signature of the drawer and amount of the item and any magnetic encoded information. Restrictions placed on payment of a check written on the face or back of a check are not binding on us even if we are aware of them.

You agree the Credit Union does not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item solely because its procedures do not provide for sight examination of items.

h. Recording Telephone Requests. You agree that we may record payment order, amendment and cancellation requests as permitted by applicable law.

i. Security Procedures. We may require you to follow a security procedure to execute, amend or cancel a payment order so that we may verify the authenticity of the order, amendment or cancellation. You agree that the security procedure established by separate agreement between you and the credit union is commercially reasonable. If you refuse to follow a commercially reasonable security procedure that we offer, you agree to be bound by any payment order, whether authorized or not, that is issued in your name and accepted by us in good faith in accordance with the security procedure.

8. Night Depository. If the Credit Union issues you one or more night depository key(s), you agree to pay any deposit fees and key replacement fees (as applicable) as disclosed on the Fee Schedule. Furthermore, you agree to the following terms, conditions, and rules.

a. Night Depository Service. The night depository service is provided by the Credit Union as a convenience. You agree that the Credit Union shall not be required to carry insurance on the depository, or the contents of any bag deposited therein, nor shall the Credit Union be responsible for any loss of any bag or its contents or any part thereof, except for such losses directly resulting from the gross negligence and/or willful misconduct of the Credit Union and the Credit Union's officers or agents.

b. Use of Key(s). You will not transfer to or permit the use of the key(s) by anyone other than the authorized individual(s) whose signature(s) appears on the Account Card. The key(s) will remain Credit Union property and will be returned at any time upon request. You promise to notify the Credit Union immediately of the loss or theft of any depository key assigned to you.

c. Bag Contents. Any bag you deposit in the depository will be undamaged and sealed. Each bag will contain a deposit slip, listing contents of the bag in the same manner as though a deposit were being made in person. Furthermore, you will not place any dangerous or flammable objects/materials in said bag(s).

d. Institution Authorized to Open Bag. You authorize the Credit Union to open said bag, remove contents, and make deposit to the account designated on the deposit slip. If the contents of the bag do not conform, either in description or total, to the items listed on the deposit slip, the Credit Union is authorized to change the deposit slip to conform to the contents and complete a deposit correction notice (if applicable). You understand that the Credit Union, and the Credit Union's officers or agents shall be responsible for only such contents as may be found in the bag when opened. You agree that the deposit ticket or deposit correction notice (if applicable) shall be final and conclusive as to the contents of the bag when you deposited it in the night depository.

e. Authorized Agents. Authorized Signers are authorized to deposit bags in the depository for deposit to the account designated on the deposit slip. The Night Depository Service shall continue and remain in effect until (i) termination has been delivered by you and received by the Credit Union or (ii) Credit Union elects to terminate the service, whichever occurs earlier.

f. Safety Notice. The following information is a list of safety precautions regarding the use of night deposit facilities.

- Be aware of your surroundings, particularly at night.
- Consider having someone accompany you when the night deposit facility is used after dark.
- If another person is uncomfortably close to you at the time of your transaction, ask the person to step back before you complete your transaction.
- Refrain from displaying cash at the night deposit facility.
- If you notice anything suspicious at the night deposit facility, consider coming back later.
- If you are followed after making a transaction, go to the nearest public area where people are located.
- Report all crimes to law enforcement officials immediately.

9. Account Rates and Fees. The Credit Union's payment of interest on any account is subject to the account rates and fees, earnings, payment and balance requirements as set forth on the Deposit Rate Sheet and Fee Schedule and each Certificate of Deposit Receipt, which are incorporated herein by this reference. You agree the Credit Union may impose fees and charges for the account services provided by the Credit Union. A current Deposit Rate Sheet and Fee Schedule has been provided to you separately. You agree the Credit Union may change any terms on the Deposit Rate Sheet and Fee Schedule from time to time and you will be notified of such changes as required by law.

10. Transaction Limitations.

a. Withdrawal Restrictions. The Credit Union will permit a withdrawal only if you have sufficient available funds in your account to cover the full amount of the withdrawal or have an established overdraft protection plan. Any transfer or payment orders which are drawn against insufficient available funds will be subject to a service charge, set forth in the Deposit Rate Sheet and Fee Schedule. If there are sufficient available funds to cover some but not all of your withdrawal orders, the Credit Union may pay those withdrawals for which there are sufficient available funds.

The Credit Union may also refuse to allow a withdrawal in other cases; for example: any dispute between the owners about the account (unless a court has ordered us to allow the withdrawal); a legal garnishment or attachment is served; the account secures an obligation to us; any required documentation has not been presented; or you fail to repay a Credit Union loan on time. You will be advised of the reasons for refusal if such action is taken. The Credit Union reserves the right to require members to give notice in writing of any intended withdrawals from any account up to the maximum time allowed by law.

11. Overdrafts/Insufficient Funds.

a. Overdraft Liability. If, on any day, the available funds in your checking account are not sufficient to cover checks and other items posted to your account, those checks and items will be handled in accordance with our overdraft procedures, or an overdraft protection plan you have with us. The Credit Union's determination of an insufficient account balance is made at the time the check or item is presented to us, which may be later during the day or a different day than the time you conduct the transaction.

Overdrafts will be determined based on the available balance in your account at the time the item is presented to us for payment. Your available balance may be lower than your actual balance if your account has funds held for pending debit card transactions you have authorized, pending direct deposits that are not yet available for withdrawal, or if you have deposited checks that are held pursuant to our funds availability policy. Your account will then be subject to a fee for non-sufficient funds or unavailable funds for the item whether paid or returned as set forth in the Fee Schedule.

Except as otherwise agreed in writing, the Credit Union, by covering one or any overdraft, does not agree to cover overdrafts in the future and may discontinue covering overdrafts at any time. If the Credit Union pays a check or other item that would otherwise overdraw your account, you agree to pay the overdraft amount immediately. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving a payor bank extra time beyond any midnight deadline limits.

b. Transaction Posting Order. Generally, most transactions are posted to your account according to the date and time in which these transactions are presented to the Credit Union. Certain transactions may be posted after regular Credit Union hours during nightly processing. Generally, transactions are posted throughout the day, in the order received by the Credit Union. The table below provides additional details on the order in which different types of transactions are posted to your account.

Transaction Category	When Posted to Your Account
Teller transactions (deposits, internal transfers, withdrawals, checks cashed, loan payments)	At the time and in the order you request the transaction
Phone transactions (internal transfers, withdrawals, loan payments)	At the time and in the order you request the transaction
Outgoing wire transfers (debits)	Posted by the end of the business day the wire was requested (Saturday is not a business day), allowing reasonable time for the credit union to process the wire.

ATM transactions (deposits, transfers, withdrawals)	In time stamp order (Please note – there may be occasions in which systems are offline. In these cases, transactions post when systems are back online.)

Merchant (Visa signature) debits	When presented for payment by the merchant. Presentment by the merchant may be delayed several days after you conduct the transaction.
Transaction Type	When Posted to Your Account
ACH credits and debits	We may receive ACH files several times each business day; each file may contain both debits and credits. Credits are posted at the time they are received by the credit union and debits are posted on the settlement date indicated in the transaction.
Checks	In ascending dollar order (low to high) and if more than one check for the same dollar amount, the checks are then posted in ascending check number order
Service Charges	Fees for non-sufficient or unavailable funds are charged throughout the day based upon your available balance at the time the corresponding debit transaction is presented for payment.
	Fees for processing returned deposits or returned loan payments are posted throughout the day based upon notification of non-payment received from the corresponding financial institution.

c. Overdraft Protection Plan. If we approve your request for overdraft protection, we will provide an overdraft protection plan for you. We will honor checks and other items drawn on insufficient funds in any checking account by transferring the necessary funds from a deposit account or loan account of yours, if applicable, to your checking account. Unless otherwise directed, we will transfer funds to your overdrawn account from the deposit and loan accounts designated. Transfers from a deposit account will be governed by this Agreement. Transfers from a loan account will be governed by the applicable loan agreement.

d. Courtesy Pay (A Discretionary Overdraft Service). It is the policy of Rivermark Community Credit Union to comply with applicable laws and regulations, to conduct business in accordance with strict safety and soundness standards, and to provide excellent member service. We offer Courtesy Pay as a discretionary service that strives to pay your reasonable overdrafts when your account is in good standing. If you have Courtesy Pay on your checking account, your Courtesy Pay overdraft limit will be based on your relationship with Rivermark including the age of your account, frequency and amount of deposits and other related account information. Your limit may change periodically based on your account activity with us.

Overdrafts are paid at our discretion, meaning there is no guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction. Our Courtesy Pay service does not constitute an actual or implied agreement between you and the Credit Union, nor does it constitute an actual or implied obligation of or by the Credit Union. Our Courtesy Pay service represents a courtesy that the Credit Union may provide to you from time to time and which may be withdrawn or withheld by us at any time without prior notice, reason or cause.

At our discretion, we may pay your non-sufficient funds (NSF) or unavailable funds transactions initiated for payment against your checking account by using your established Courtesy Pay limit, which may change from time to time. Any and all financial institution fees and charges, including, without limitation, the NSF Item Paid fee and NSF Item Returned overdraft fee (as set forth in the Fee Schedule) will be included as part of this limit. The categories of transactions which may cause an overdraft include, but are not limited to, checks, ATM transactions, debit card transactions, preauthorized automatic debits, telephone or other electronically initiated transfers, or unpaid returned items deposited by you. Additionally, overdrafts may be caused by funds held for pending debit card transactions you have authorized, pending ACH or direct deposits that are not yet available for withdrawal, or if you have deposited checks that are held pursuant to our funds availability policy. Transactions may not be presented in the order in which they occurred, and the order in which transactions are received and processed by the Credit Union can affect the total amount of overdraft fees you incur.

e. Eligibility Requirements. Generally, your account becomes eligible once the following requirements are met:

- You have established an Overdraft Protection Plan (over-draft transfers) on your account. The account has been open for at least thirty (30) days.
- You make regular deposits consistent with your past practices.
- Your account remains in good standing; for example, you are not in default on any loan or other obligation to Rivermark Community Credit Union, and/or your account is not subject to any legal or administrative order or levy, such as bankruptcy or a tax lien.

f. Eligible Overdraft Items. If your account is eligible as described above, rather than automatically returning unpaid the following non-sufficient or unavailable funds items that you may have, we will strive to pay, without obligation on our part, your reasonable overdrafts up to your established Courtesy Pay limit, including our fees. We may authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- Checks and other transactions made using your checking account number,
- Automatic bill payments,
- Recurring debit card transactions,
- Everyday debit card purchases or transactions,
- ATM withdrawals or transfers, and
- Automated Clearing House (ACH) withdrawals (Such as an insurance payment or merchant service fee that is automatically paid from your checking account).

g. Overdraft Limits. We will strive to pay overdrafts based on your relationship with Rivermark including the age of your account, frequency and dollar amount of deposits and other related account information. Your limits may also be impacted by changes to your deposit and/or overdraft repayment patterns.

h. Ineligible Accounts and Limitations. Courtesy Pay is available only to eligible checking accounts on memberships that are maintained in good standing as defined above. Savings accounts, Money Market accounts, Public Fund/ Charitable Organization accounts, Fiduciary accounts (such as Estate or Conservator), certain Trust accounts, and any Minor accounts not of legal age are not eligible for this service. We may, in our sole option and discretion, limit the number of your accounts eligible for Courtesy Pay service, such as to one account per household or address, and/or one account per tax identification number.

i. Overdraft Fees. We charge a fee for each overdraft transaction (whether for non-sufficient or unavailable funds) as set forth on the Fee Schedule. There is a daily limit on the total fees we can charge you for overdrawing your account. A fee will be charged whether we authorize the transaction for payment (NSF Item Paid fee) or return it unpaid (NSF Item Returned fee). Our NSF and overdraft fees will be included in and count against your established Courtesy Pay Limit.

j. When Overdrafts are Paid. Overdrafts are paid at our discretion, which means there is no guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction. For example, we do not pay overdrafts if your account is not in good standing or as described earlier. The amount of any overdraft(s) including our fees that you owe us shall be due and payable immediately, without notice or demand from us. Each account owner, and agent if applicable, shall be jointly and severally liable for paying any overdraft amounts, including fees. We may refuse to pay an overdraft for you at any time, even though your account is in good standing and even though we may have previously paid overdrafts for you.

k. Notifications. You will be notified by mail (or email if you have consented to E-Statements and E-Notices) of any overdraft transactions that are paid or returned unpaid. However, we are not required to notify you before any transaction is paid or returned unpaid. We will mail you a letter to notify you when your account is overdrawn for an extended period of time. If your account balance is negative for 30 days, we may suspend the payment of NSF items until your account is once again in good standing.

l. Other Overdraft Protection Options. In addition to overdraft transfers from your savings or other eligible Rivermark deposit accounts, we offer additional overdraft protection services that you may apply for. These include overdraft protection from your Visa Credit Card or your Line of Credit. If you apply and are approved for these optional

m. services, you may save money on the total fees you pay us for overdraft protection services.

n. You May Always Opt Out. You may opt-out of Courtesy Pay at any time through online banking, by visiting one of our branches, writing us at 14405 Meyers Rd. Oregon City, OR 97045, or calling 503.626.6600 or 800.452.8502

o. If You Need Help. Overdrafts should not be used to pay ordinary or routine expenses, and you should not rely on overdrafts as a means to cover these expenses. If at any time you feel you need help with your financial obligations, please visit one of our branches or call us at 503.626.6600, or toll-free at 800.452.8502.

p. Postdated and Staledated Items. You authorize us to accept and pay any check, even if the check is presented for payment before its date, as required by law. The Credit Union will not be liable for paying the item before the date stated and we may charge your account as of the date we pay the item. You also agree not to deposit checks, drafts, or other items before they are properly payable. The Credit Union is under no obligation to you to pay a check or draft drawn on your account which is presented more than six months after its date, but we may do so in our discretion.

12. Stop Payment Orders.

a. Stop Payment Request. You may ask the Credit Union to stop payment on any check drawn upon and ACH debit scheduled from your checking account. You may request a stop payment by telephone, by mail, or in person. For checks and ACH debits, the stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order. For preauthorized ACH debits, the stop payment order must be received at least three (3) banking days before the scheduled date of the transfer. You must state the account number, date and exact amount of the check or ACH, and the check number or originator of the ACH debit. If you give the Credit Union incorrect or incomplete information, the Credit Union will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. If the stop payment order is not received in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order, we will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the item. If we recredit your account after paying a check over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to assign all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check to the Credit Union, and to assist us in legal action taken against the person.

b. Duration of Order. If you make an oral stop payment order, we reserve the right to require your written confirmation within fourteen (14) days. A stop payment order will be effective indefinitely unless canceled verbally or in writing.

c. Liability. The Credit Union may charge a fee for each stop payment order requested, as set forth on the Fee Schedule. You may not stop payment on any certified check or draft, cashier's check or teller's check, or any other check, draft, or payment guaranteed by the Credit Union with the exception, at our discretion, of a Credit Union check that is thought to be lost or stolen. You should be aware that while payment of the item may be stopped, you remain liable to any person, including the Credit Union, who is a holder of the item despite the stop payment order. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney fees, damages or claims related to our action in refusing payment of an item, including claims of any multiple party account owner, payee, or endorsee in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you.

d. Lost Items. The Credit Union, in receiving items from you for withdrawal or deposit, acts only as your agent and reserves the right to reverse the credit for any deposited items or to charge your account for the items should they become lost in the collection process.

13. Credit Union's Liability for Errors. If the Credit Union does not properly complete a transaction according to this Agreement, our liability to you shall not exceed the amount of the transaction, except as otherwise provided by law. The Credit Union will not be liable if:

- your account does not contain enough money to make the transaction,
- circumstances beyond the Credit Union's control prevents the transaction,
- your loss is caused, in whole or any part, by your negligence or the negligence of another financial institution; or
- the money in your account is subject to legal process or other claim.

The Credit Union will not be liable for consequential damages except to the extent applicable law requires us to accept liability for wrongful dishonor. The Credit Union's actions will constitute the exercise of ordinary care if such actions or nonactions are consistent with applicable state law, Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules, and general banking practices followed in the area serviced by the Credit Union. You grant us the right, in making payments of deposited funds, to rely exclusively on the form of the account and the terms of this Agreement. Any conflict between oral representations by you or Credit Union employees and any written form will be resolved by reference to this Agreement and applicable written form.

14. Credit Union Lien and Security Interest. To the extent you owe the Credit Union money, the Credit Union has a lien on any or all the funds in any account in which you are an owner at the Credit Union, regardless of the source of the funds, unless we waive it in writing. The Credit Union may apply these funds in any order to pay off your indebtedness. If the Credit Union chooses not to immediately enforce its lien, we do not waive our right to enforce the lien at a later time. In addition, you grant the Credit Union a consensual security interest in your accounts and agree we may use the funds from your accounts to pay any debt or amount owed the Credit Union, except obligations secured by your dwelling, unless prohibited by applicable law. You may not assign or transfer any account to a third party.

15. Legal Process. If any legal action is brought against your account, the Credit Union may refuse to pay out any money from your account until the dispute is resolved. If the Credit Union incurs any expenses or attorney fees in responding to legal process, such expenses may be charged against your account without prior notice to you, unless prohibited by law. Any legal process against your account is subject to the Credit Union's lien and security interest.

a. Name and Address Changes. It is your responsibility to notify us if you change your email, physical or mailing address or name. The Credit Union is only required to attempt to communicate with you at the most recent address you have provided to us. The Credit Union may accept oral notices of a change in address and may require any notice from you be provided in writing to an employee of the Credit Union. If the Credit Union attempts to locate you, the Credit Union may impose a Fee as set forth on the Fee Schedule. You authorize the Credit Union to update your account records with any notification of change of address issued by the U.S. Postal Service, although the Credit Union may, in its sole discretion, choose not to do so.

b. Notice of Amendments. Except as otherwise prohibited by applicable law, the terms of this Agreement are subject to change at any time. The Credit Union will notify you of any changes as required by law. You agree to any new terms or conditions so long as the Credit Union notifies you that changes have been made and makes the amended Agreement available to you via its Web site, in its branches, or mails it to you upon your request. Account changes requested by you, or any account owner, such as adding or closing an account or service, must be provided in writing by an Authorized Signer before the Credit Union will accept such changes. The Credit Union reserves the right to waive any term in this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect the Credit Union's right to enforce any right in the future.

c. Effect of Notice. Any written notice you give to the Credit Union is effective when it is actually received by the Credit Union. Any written notice the Credit Union gives to you is effective when it is provided electronically, if you have agreed to receive account notices electronically, or when it is deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid and addressed to you at your last known address. Notice to any one Account Owner or Authorized Signer is considered notice to all owners or signers of the account.

17. Taxpayer Identification Numbers. If your account is or becomes subject to backup withholding, the Credit Union is required by law to withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) a percentage of payments of interest, dividends, and certain other payments under certain conditions. Your failure to furnish a correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) or meet other applicable requirements may result in backup withholding. If you refuse to provide your TIN, the Credit Union may suspend the opening of your account.

18. Credit Reporting. We may report information about your loan, share or deposit accounts to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your accounts may be reflected in your credit report.

a. Contents. If we provide a periodic statement for your account, it will show all transactions and activity on your account during the statement period. If a periodic statement is provided, you agree that only one statement is necessary for a multiple party account. Statements will be mailed to the last address you have provided to us or as we have otherwise agreed. You understand statements and checks are considered to have been made available to you on the date the statement is mailed, or the information is otherwise made available to you electronically. For checking accounts, you understand that when paid, your original check (or any substitute check) becomes property of the Credit Union and may not be returned to you. You agree to keep a copy or carbon-copy of your original check in order to verify its validity. If you request us to provide you with an original check or sufficient copy, you agree that we may provide an electronic image of the original check or sufficient copy if you have agreed to receive account information or statements electronically.

b. Examination. You are responsible for examining each statement and canceled checks and reporting any irregularities to the Credit Union. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any forged or altered item, any unauthorized endorsement on any item drawn on your account, or any other error and/or discrepancies reflected on your periodic statement if (1) you fail to notify the Credit Union within thirty (30) calendar days of the mailing date of the earliest statement showing the item or other error; or (2) any items are forged or altered in a manner not detectable by a reasonable person, including the unauthorized use of facsimile signature machine or stamp.

c. Notice to Credit Union. You agree that the Credit Union's retention of checks does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements or the time limit for notifying the Credit Union of any errors. The statement will be considered correct for all purposes, and the Credit Union will not be liable for any transfer made from or charged to your account unless you notify the Credit Union in writing within the above time limit after the statement is made available to you.

d. Electronic Statements (E-Statements). If your statement is provided electronically, you will be sent an electronic mail notice that will direct you to the website where you may access, review, print and otherwise copy/download your periodic statements using procedures we authorize. Electronic mails from us will be sent to the electronic mail address provided by the account owner.

20. Dormant, Lost and Abandoned Accounts. If you have an account that you have not made a withdrawal from, deposit to, or transfer involving your account for more than one (1) year, the Credit Union may classify your account as a dormant account and may charge a service fee as allowed by applicable law and set forth on the Fee Schedule. We will notify you at your last known address prior to imposing any fee, if required by law. If a deposit or withdrawal has not been made on the account and the Credit Union has had no other contact with you within the period set forth under applicable state law, the account will be presumed to be abandoned. Funds in abandoned accounts will be remitted in accordance with state law. Once funds have been turned over to the state, the Credit Union has no further liability to you for such funds and if you choose to reclaim such funds, you must apply to the appropriate state agency.

21. Termination of Account. The Credit Union may terminate your account at any time without notice to you or may require you to close your account and apply for a new account if:

- there is a change in owners or authorized signers;
- there has been a forgery or fraud reported or committed involving your account;
- there is a dispute as to the ownership of the funds in the account;
- any account checks are lost or stolen;
- there are excessive returned unpaid items not covered by an overdraft protection plan;
- we reasonably deem it necessary to prevent a loss to us;
- there has been any misrepresentation or any other abuse of any of your accounts; or
- as otherwise permitted by law.

Using any account or transaction with the Credit Union for any illegal activity will constitute a default under this Agreement and may result in the immediate termination of your accounts. If you use any account or transaction for an illegal activity, you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from any direct or indirect losses caused to us by the illegal activity. You may terminate your account(s) at any time by notifying the Credit Union in writing. The Credit Union is not responsible for payment of any check, withdrawal, or other item once your account is terminated; however, if the Credit Union pays a check after termination, you agree to reimburse the Credit Union for payment. You further agree to notify all account signers of the termination.

22. Termination of Membership. You may terminate your membership at the Credit Union after giving written notice of your intent to withdraw from membership or by withdrawing your minimum required membership share, if any, and closing all your accounts. We may suspend all of your account access and services without notice to you for reasonable cause or expel you from membership for any reason allowed by applicable law, including failure to comply with our Bylaws; causing or creating an undue risk of loss to the membership; causing willful destruction or damage to Credit Union property, or acting without civility in dealings with Credit Union members, officers and employees.

23. Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act (UIGEA). You are prohibited from placing, receiving, or otherwise knowingly transmitting a bet or wager by any means considered unlawful under any State or Federal law, including transactions or payments made or received through credit cards, electronic transactions and checks. The Credit Union will not knowingly process these restricted transactions, and we reserve the right to close any account or membership associated with any restricted transactions.

Any new or existing business member engaged in an Internet gambling business that opens a new account with the Credit Union will be asked to provide evidence of their legal capacity to do so. If you fail to provide required documentation, the Credit Union reserves the right to close your business membership. UIGEA pertains to unlawful Internet gambling and doesn't address State Lottery retailers. As part of the new account opening process, the Credit Union may ask you to provide a copy of your State Lottery contract.

24. Monitoring and Recording Communications. We may monitor or record communications between you and us, including telephone conversations, video calls, electronic messages, electronic records, or other data transmissions that affect your accounts or other products and services. Except as otherwise prohibited by applicable law, you agree we may monitor and record such communications without your approval or further notice to you.

25. Audio/Video Recording or Photography. For security and privacy purposes, you are strictly prohibited from photographing and/or audio/video recording inside our branch locations and offices without our express written consent.

26. Consent to Contact. You agree that we and/or our third-party providers, including debt collectors, may contact you by telephone or text message at any telephone number associated with your account, including wireless telephone numbers (i.e. cell phone numbers) which could result in charges to you, in order to service your account or collect any amounts owed to us, excluding any contacts for advertising and telemarketing purposes as prescribed by law. You further agree methods of contact may include use of pre-recorded or artificial voice messages, and/or use of an automatic dialing device. You may withdraw consent to be contacted on your wireless telephone number(s) at any time by notifying us by any reasonable means. If you have provided a wireless telephone number(s) on or in connection with any account, you represent and agree you are the wireless subscriber or the established user with respect to the wireless telephone number(s) provided and have the authority to give this consent. You agree to notify us of any change to the wireless telephone number(s) which you have provided to us.

In order to help mitigate harm to you and your account, we may contact you on any telephone number associated with your account, including a wireless telephone number (i.e. cell phone number), to deliver to you any messages related to suspected or actual fraudulent activity on your account, data security breaches or identity theft following a data breach, money transfers or any other urgent messages permitted by applicable law. These contacts will not contain any telemarketing, cross-marketing, solicitation, or advertising. The contacts will be concise and limited in frequency as required by law. You will have an opportunity to opt-out of such communications at the time of delivery.

27. Waiver of Notices. To the extent permitted by law, you waive any notice of non-payment, dishonor or protest regarding any items credited to or charged against your account. For example, if you deposit an item and it is returned unpaid or we receive a notice of nonpayment, we do not have to notify you unless required by federal regulation or other applicable law.

28. Derogatory Communications. We reserve the right to reject offensive or derogatory communications such as selected account names, email addresses, or security terms related to your accounts.

29. Indemnity. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any loss or damage, including attorney fees arising from the Credit Union's actions or reliance upon your account and authorization instructions, including the transactions conducted by or instructions provided by authorized persons on your account, whether such authority is evidenced in writing or provided by you verbally.

30. Severability. In the event that any paragraph of this Agreement or any portion thereof is held by a court to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the other paragraphs and portions of this Agreement shall not be invalid or unenforceable and will continue in full force and effect.

31. Enforcement. You agree to be liable to the Credit Union for any liability, loss, or expense as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. In the event either party brings a legal action over any provision in the Agreement or to collect any overdrawn funds on accounts covered by this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions, if applicable.

32. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the Bylaws of the Credit Union, applicable federal laws and regulations, the laws and regulations of the State of Oregon and local clearing house rules, as amended from time to time. You agree that venue for any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be any Oregon county in which the Credit Union has a branch.

33. Be Kind: Rivermark Community Standards. Rivermark Community Credit Union is a member-owned financial co-op. We are committed to a vision to transform lives and communities together. This means that we strive to be the best financial institution our members can choose and an organization where our employees feel safe and supported every day.

Rivermark is a community credit union and we're proud to represent and reflect the values of the communities we serve. Rivermark supports and fosters a safe, inclusive, and caring environment for all employees and members, including Black, Indigenous, and people of color.

We celebrate the differences between and within every employee, member, and vendor, including age, color, mental or physical abilities, ethnicity, family or marital status, gender identity or expression, language, national origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, veteran status, or other characteristics.

All Rivermark members, staff, vendors, and visitors of the credit union are expected to uphold the community standards below and are accountable for their behavior in all forms of engagement, whether in person or virtually.

- We celebrate the differences that exist within our community and strive to make all feel welcome and included.

- We treat everyone with respect and kindness, whether members, staff, vendors, guests, or members of the larger community. We are polite and civil with each other, and refrain from personal attacks or threats of any kind.
- We respectfully advocate for ourselves, seeking both to understand the needs of the co-op and to have our own needs understood.
- We expect the best from everyone, but understand we are all learning and growing. We apologize when we make a mistake, work to make things right, learn from the error, and seek to do better next time.
- We embrace change to ensure we stay relevant and committed to fulfilling our core mission of improving our members' financial lives.

For all members of the Rivermark community, we have a zero-tolerance policy of discrimination, racism, and harassment. Rivermark is committed to the standards above and will promptly investigate any reported violations. We will seek to understand the perspective of all parties through mutually respectful dialogue and take responsible action while maintaining the privacy and dignity of the parties as much as possible to restore the harmony of our community.

34. AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATION OF CLAIMS OR DISPUTES

PLEASE REVIEW THIS PROVISION CAREFULLY; IT AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS.

Either you or us may choose to have any claim or dispute resolved through arbitration rather than in court.

Arbitration of a dispute results in loss of any right to participate in a class action lawsuit related to the claims arbitrated.

Claims Subject to Arbitration: Class Action Waiver

If there is a claim or dispute between you or us arising from or related in any way to any account, product, or service, other than a loan, either you or we may require the claim or dispute be resolved through binding arbitration before a neutral party instead of a lawsuit or other resolution in court. This includes all past, present, and future claims, including claims that arose before this provision became effective.

If either you or us require the claim or dispute to be resolved through arbitration, it will be subject to arbitration even if the other party does not agree. This arbitration provision will apply irrespective of whether the claim or dispute arises under contract, tort, statute, or any other basis. Such claim or dispute shall be arbitrated on an individual basis and not in a class action. You and we waive any right to arbitrate disputes as part of a class action. If a class action lawsuit is initiated against us, you agree that this provision applies to such action and if we require claims covered by the class action to be arbitrated, you will withdraw from or agree to dismissal of the class action and allow your claim to be arbitrated on an individual basis.

Claims Not Subject to Arbitration

A claim filed against either you or us in small claims court in Oregon is excluded from this arbitration requirement as long as the claim remains in small claims court as an individual claim and not a class action. In addition, no claim is subject to this arbitration requirement if you are an active-duty armed service member.

Either you or us may require arbitration of a claim or dispute even if you or us has already initiated legal action related to the claim or dispute. The arbitration may be required and initiated by: (i) making written demand for arbitration on the other party; (ii) initiating an arbitration proceeding against the other party; or (iii) filing a motion to compel arbitration in a court in which litigation has already begun. The arbitration shall be conducted pursuant to the Consumer Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration shall take place in the federal judicial district in which you reside, or in which you entered into this Agreement. We will reimburse the amount of filing, case management, administration, and arbitrator fees you pay to the arbitration organization and the arbitrator that exceed $250, to a maximum of $5000, unless the arbitration rules or arbitrator's decision requires us to pay more. We will not reimburse any fees if the arbitrator determines that your claim or dispute was frivolous or baseless. Each party shall be responsible for its own fees in any arbitration unless the arbitrator awards attorney fees under applicable law or agreement. More information about the AAA rules and procedures is available at www.adr.org or by phone at (800) 778-7879.

This arbitration provision and any arbitration conducted under it are governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.) and are not subject to any state law related to arbitration.

Right to Reject this Agreement to Arbitration of Claims and Disputes.

You may opt out of this agreement to arbitrate if you tell us within 30 days after: (i) the opening of your initial Account or (ii) your receipt of a notice of change in terms informing you of this Agreement, whichever is later. To opt out, send us written notice including your name as listed on your account, your account number, and a statement that you reject the Agreement to Arbitration of Claims and Disputes. You must send your written notice to: Rivermark Community Credit Union, 14405 Meyers Road, Oregon City, OR 97045.

Acceptance of Arbitration and Class Action Waiver

Your decision not to reject this Agreement as confirmed by your continued use of your Account constitutes your consent to the Agreement to Arbitration of Claims and Disputes provision for all of your accounts and services.

II. FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY

1. General Policy for Savings Accounts. For all savings accounts, we reserve the right to place reasonable holds on all funds deposited. For checking accounts, our funds availability policy is set forth below.

2. Policies for Checking Accounts. The date on which you may withdraw funds is counted in business days from the day of your deposit. Every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, federal holidays, and days the Credit Union is closed.

a. Deposits at Rivermark Community Credit Union Branches. If you make deposits to your checking account at Rivermark Community Credit Union branches, the following general policy applies. Our policy is to make funds from your deposits available to you on the same business day that we receive your deposit. At that time, you can withdraw the funds in cash, and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written. For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. Longer Delays May Apply. In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the same business day of your deposit. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, the first $225 ($275 effective July 1, 2025) of your deposit to checking will be available at least by the first business day after your deposit is received, unless you have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six (6) months, we have reason to doubt collectability of the check, or certain emergency conditions exist.

If we are not going to make all the funds from your deposit available on the same business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the next business day after we receive your deposit.

In addition, funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

- You deposit checks totaling more than $5,525 ($6,725 effective July 1, 2025) on anyone (1) day.
- You deposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.
- We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six (6) months.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

b. Holds on Other Funds. If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another financial institution, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it. If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another account with us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described elsewhere in this disclosure for the type of check that you deposited.

c. Special Rules for New Accounts. The following special rules may apply during the first thirty (30) days your account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposits will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of wire transfers, and the first $5,525 ($6,725 effective July 1, 2025) of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's and federal, state, and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you.

The excess over $5,525 ($6,725 effective July 1, 2025) may not be available until the ninth business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,525 ($6,725 effective July 1, 2025) may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from all other check deposits may not be available until the ninth business day after the day of your deposit.

d. Deposits At Automated Teller Machines (ATMs). Funds from deposits at Credit Union ATMs in excess of $225 ($275 effective July 1, 2025) in one day may not be available until the second business day after the day of deposit. All ATMs that we own or operate are identified as our machines. Funds from deposits (cash or checks) made at automated teller machines (ATMs) we do not own or operate may not be available until the fifth business day after the day of your deposit.

3. Deposits Using Remote Methods. We reserve the right to place reasonable holds on funds deposited via Mobile Deposit. If a hold is placed, you will be provided a hold notice detailing the amount and length of the hold.

Foreign Checks. Checks drawn on financial institutions located outside the U.S. (foreign checks) cannot be processed the same as checks drawn on U.S. financial institutions. Foreign checks are exempt from the policies outlined in the disclosure. Generally, the availability of funds for deposits of foreign checks will be delayed for the time it takes to collect the funds from the financial institution upon which it is drawn.

Contact the Credit Union immediately regarding any unauthorized transaction or stop payment request; call the Credit Union at the telephone number set forth in Section 6.

2. Online Bill Pay Services. When you apply for the online bill payment service ("Online Bill Pay") you designate your checking account as the account from which payments that you authorize will be deducted. Each separate payee may be set up to deduct payment from any checking account on which you are an owner. You will be given the ability to set up merchants, institutions or individuals that you would like to pay. You are not permitted to designate governmental agencies or courts. All payees must be in the United States. We reserve the right to not allow the designation of a particular merchant or institution.

a. Online Bill Pay Transactions. You or any persons who you have authorized to use your Online Bill Pay Service, Online Banking Service, sign-on Password, challenge questions or any other access code can perform the following transactions:

- Set up and pay any designated merchant, institution or individual in accordance with this agreement a fixed recurring amount or a variable amount "on demand," from your designated checking account.
- You must designate a "Due By" date for each payment. The "Due By" date is the date that your payment should be received by your Payee. If a "Due By" date falls on a weekend or Federal Reserve holiday, the payment will be delivered the next business day.
- Obtain information (payee information, payment status information, etc.) about your Online Bill Pay account status.

b. Processing Bill Pay Transactions. You authorize us to process bill payments from your designated account(s). You may use the Online Bill Pay service to initiate the following payment transactions:

- "Future" payments are payments that you initiate in advance by setting the payment amount and due date.
- "Recurring" payments are payments that are reoccurring on a fixed due date and fixed amount. Recurring payments will continue indefinitely.

c. Authorized Payments. When you transmit a bill payment instruction to us, you authorize us to transfer funds to make the bill payment transaction from your designated checking account. We will process bill payment transfer requests only to those payees the Credit Union has designated in its User Instructions and such payees as you authorize and for whom the Credit Union has the proper payee account number and payment information. The Credit Union will not process any bill payment transfer if we know the required transaction information is incomplete. In any event, the Credit Union will not be liable for any transaction that contains incorrect information that the Credit Union was not responsible for entering or knowing. If there are insufficient funds in your account to make the bill payment, we may either refuse to make the payment or make the payment and transfer funds from any overdraft protection account (including Courtesy Pay, as applicable) you have established. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to process payment instructions that reasonably appear to the Credit Union to be fraudulent or erroneous.

d. Processing Payments. The Credit Union will initiate your bill payment transfer in advance so that the payee receives it by the delivery date that you have designated. You must have sufficient funds available to cover your payment on the date it is debited. Your payment will be debited from your account on the scheduled due date. The dollar limit on any payment is your available balance up to $10,000.00 with a daily limit of $20,000. Bill payments are delivered to the payee either electronically or by check. It is your responsibility to schedule your bill payments in such a manner that your obligations will be paid on time. You should enter and transmit your bill payment instructions at least ten (10) business days before a bill is due. If you do not allow sufficient time, you assume full responsibility for any late payments, fees, or finance charges that may be imposed as a result of your failure to transmit a timely bill payment authorization. You are responsible for settling issues and disputes with your Payee. You must contact your payees directly concerning any disputes or questions you have regarding their bill, including questions related to when your payment was credited or your payee's refusal to accept a payment.

e. Canceling or Changing Bill Payments. You may cancel or stop payment on Future and Recurring bill payments under certain circumstances. If you discover an error in or want to change a payment instruction (i.e. payment date or payment amount) for a bill payment that you have already scheduled for transmission through the Online Bill Pay service, you may electronically edit or cancel your payment request through the Bill Pay service as long as the payment is not "in progress". Once your payment is "in progress" you will not be able to cancel it or make changes. If your request is not timely entered, you will be responsible for the payment. If you wish to place an oral stop payment on a recurring bill payment transaction, not using the Online Bill Pay service, the Credit Union must receive your oral stop payment a reasonable time before the scheduled due date me. You may call the Credit Union at 503-626-6600 or 800-452-8502. If you call, the Credit Union may require you to confirm your stop payment request in writing within 14 days after the call. You cannot edit or delete an expedited bill payment once it has been authorized.

You also accept responsibility for making sure that you know how to properly use your wireless device, and the Mobile Banking software ("Software") required to use the Mobile Banking Service. You understand that all owners of your accounts or anyone with whom you share your Access code or any access code will be an authorized user ("Authorized User"), and that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner with full authority to perform all transactions relating to the stated accounts, until you notify the Credit Union, in writing of the revocation of such authority. You agree that you are and will remain fully responsible for any transactions made by such persons on your accounts except transactions that occur after the Credit Union has been notified of any revocation of authority and has had a reasonable opportunity to act upon such notice.

iii. Relationship to Other Agreements. You agree that when you use Mobile Banking, you will remain subject to the terms and conditions of all your existing agreements with us or any service providers of yours; including service carrier or provider and that this Agreement does not amend or supersede any of those agreements. You understand that those agreements may provide for fees, limitations and restrictions which might impact your use of Mobile Banking (for example, your mobile service carrier or provider may impose data usage or text message charges for your use of or interaction with Mobile Banking, including while downloading the Software, receiving or sending Mobile Banking text messages, or other use of your Wireless device when using the Software or other products and services provided by Mobile Banking), and you agree to be solely responsible for all such fees, limitations and restrictions. You agree that only your mobile service carrier or provider is responsible for its products and services. Accordingly, you agree to resolve any problems with your carrier or provider directly with your carrier or provider without involving us. You also agree that if you have any problems with Mobile Banking, you will contact us directly.

vi. Additional Service Limitations. Neither we nor our service providers can always foresee or anticipate technical or other difficulties related to Mobile Banking. These difficulties may result in loss of data, personalization settings or other Mobile Banking interruptions. Neither we nor any of our service providers assume responsibility for the timeliness, deletion, misdelivery or failure to store any user data, communications or personalization settings in connection with your use of Mobile Banking. Neither we nor any of our service providers assume responsibility for the operation, security, functionality or availability of any Wireless device or mobile network which you utilize to access the Mobile Banking Service. If you need current account information you agree to contact us directly.

4. Electronic Transfer Services.

a. Automated Teller Machines (ATM) Transactions. You may use your Visa Debit card (Card) or ATM card and Personal Identification Number (PIN) in automated teller machines of the Credit Union; ACCEL, Plus, Visa, Advantage, and Co-op Networks; and such other machines we may designate. At the present time, you may use your card to make the following transactions on your accounts:

- Withdraw cash from your savings or checking accounts.
- Transfer funds between your savings and checking accounts.
- Make loan payments from your savings and checking accounts.
- Obtain account balance information on savings and checking accounts.
- Make deposits to your savings or checking accounts at Credit Union ATMs and selected Co-op Network ATMs.

There is no limit to the number of withdrawals you may make at Credit Union ATMs and nonproprietary ATMs. However, you may be charged a fee as set forth in the Fee Schedule. You may withdraw up to $530 (if there are sufficient funds available in your account) per day (ends at 12:00 midnight) at any authorized ATM, subject to security requirements and limits placed by each individual ATM. You may transfer between your savings or checking accounts up to the balance in your accounts at the time of the transfer at available locations.

b. Visa Business Debit Rewards Card. You are solely responsible for any disputes you may have with merchandise or services received using the Visa Business Debit Rewards Card. We are not responsible for any damages, liability, or settlement resolution as a result of the misrepresentation of quality, price, or warranty of goods or services by a merchant.

You may use your Visa Business Debit Rewards Card to purchase goods and services any place your Card is honored by participating merchants. Funds to cover your Card purchases will be deducted from your checking account. We deduct the amount of your transaction, including any charges imposed by the merchant or financial institution, from your checking account. We may debit or place a hold on your account for a transaction either on the day it is presented to us for payment, by electronic or other means, or on the day we receive notice of the transaction — whichever is earlier — even though the transaction may not be actually posted to your account until a later date. When you use your Visa Business Debit Rewards Card for a Visa transaction, if the merchant requests preauthorization for this transaction, we will place a three (3) business day hold on your account for the amount of the preauthorization request (which may vary in some cases from the amount of the actual purchase, depending on the merchant's request). You agree that all transactions that you initiate by use of your Visa Business Debit Rewards Card are legal in the jurisdiction where you live and/or where the transaction occurred. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which you are located, including the United States.

Your Visa Business Debit Rewards Card may only be used for legal transactions. Display of a payment card logo by an online merchant does not mean that internet gambling transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which you may be located. We have restricted all online gambling transactions with the Visa Business Debit Rewards Card.

Some merchants may permit you to initiate debit and bill payment transactions with your card using either the Visa network or another network shown on your card. The Credit Union will honor your debit transactions processed by any of these networks. Transactions processed over the Visa network do not require you to use your PIN to validate the transaction. Generally, you will sign a receipt, provide your card number (e.g. internet, mail, or telephone transactions), or swipe your card at a terminal. Also, there are certain protections and rights such as the zero liability protections in the section titled "Member Liability," applicable only to Visa processed transactions. Transactions processed over other networks may not require you to use your PIN in order to validate a transaction. Generally, you enter your card number or swipe your card and provide or enter a PIN. However, some merchants may not require you to provide a PIN and allow you to choose whether the transaction is processed by Visa or another network. Provisions applicable only to Visa transactions (such as Visa's zero liability protections) will not apply to non-Visa debit transactions and the liability rules for other EFTs in the section titled "Member Liability" will apply.

C. Telephone Teller Service. If we approve the Telephone Teller Service for your accounts, a separate personal identification number (PIN) will be assigned to you. You must use your personal identification number (PIN) along with your account number to access your accounts. At the present time you may use the Telephone Teller Service to:

- Obtain balance information from all your savings, checking and loan accounts including Visa.
- Transfer funds between these same accounts, including loan payments to any of your loan accounts (except from Visa).
- Withdraw from savings by check, made payable to you and mailed to you at your mailing address.
- Verify certain account information, including if a particular check has cleared your account, listing of electronic withdrawals and deposits, loan payment and loan payoff amounts, and account and loan history.
- Access your Visa credit card account.
- Find out the interest paid, and dividends earned on your accounts. Your accounts can be accessed under the Telephone Teller Service via a touch tone telephone only. Telephone Teller Service will be available for your convenience twenty-four (24) hours per day. This service may be interrupted for a short time each day for data processing.
- There is no limit to the number of inquiries, transfers, or withdrawal requests you may make in any one day.
- No transfer or withdrawal may exceed the available funds in your account.

The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction which would draw upon insufficient funds, exceed a credit limit, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. All checks are payable to you as a member and will be mailed to your address of record. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits. The Credit Union may refuse to honor any transaction for which you do not have sufficient available verified funds. The Telephone Teller Service will discontinue after numerous unsuccessful attempts to enter a PIN or transaction, and there may be limits on the duration of each telephone call.

d. Preauthorized Electronic Funds Transfers and Direct Deposit. Preauthorized electronic funds transfers may be made into or from your Credit Union accounts. These may include preauthorized electronic funds transfers made to an account from a third party or from an account to a third party (such as a mortgage company or insurance premium payment, excluding Online Bill Payment transactions). If electronic funds transfers are made into or from your account, those payments may be affected by a change in your account status or if you transfer or lose your account. Upon instruction of (i) your employer, (ii) the Treasury Department, or (iii) other financial institutions, the Credit Union will accept direct deposits of your paycheck or of federal recurring payments, such as Social Security.

5. Conditions of Account Use. The use of your Card and Account are subject to the following conditions:

a. Ownership of Cards. Any Card or other device which we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or to any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to sign the Card, immediately according to instructions. The Card may be repossessed at any time in our sole discretion without demand or notice. You cannot transfer your Card or Account to another person. You may not use the Card for any illegal or unlawful transaction, and we may decline to authorize any transaction that we believe poses an undue risk of illegality or unlawfulness.

b. Honoring the Card. Neither we nor merchants authorized to honor the Card will be responsible for the failure or refusal to honor the Card or any other device we supply to you. If a merchant agrees to give you a refund or adjustment, you agree to accept a credit to your Account in lieu of a cash refund.

c. Security of Access Code or Device. Each ATM-PIN, Telephone Teller Access Code, or Online and Mobile Banking password (including biometric access such as Touch ID) is the Access Code you select for your security. Your Access Code is confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded. You are responsible for safekeeping your Access Code. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your Access Code or Wireless Device for Mobile Banking available to anyone not authorized by you to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to have or use your Access Code or Wireless Device, you understand that person may use the Online Banking, Online Bill Pay or Mobile Banking service to access and review all your account information and execute account transactions. Therefore, we are entitled to act on transaction instructions received using your Access Code and you agree that the use of your Access Code will have the same effect as your signature authorizing transactions. If you authorize anyone to use your Access Code in any manner that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union and changing your Access Code immediately. You are responsible for any transactions made by such persons until you notify us that transactions and access by that person are no longer authorized and your Access Code is changed. If you fail to change your Access Code or maintain the security of your Access Code and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your electronic services immediately.

6. Authorized Users. For any of your accounts accessed under this Agreement that you have designated or permitted an Authorized User, you shall be fully responsible for all electronic transactions by any authorized users to or from any deposit or loan account as provided in this Agreement. You agree any Authorized User may make any transaction permitted under this Agreement including, without limitation:

- To withdraw all or any part of the account funds.
- To deposit checks and other items payable to the business.
- To give stop payment orders on any EFT transfer, whether initiated by that account owner or not.
- To close any account with the disbursement of account proceeds as provided for in this Agreement.

Each Authorized User is authorized to act for the account owner, and the Credit Union may accept orders and instructions, regarding any electronic transaction or any account from any authorized user. If the Credit Union believes there is to be a dispute between the account owner and an authorized user or receives inconsistent instructions from the account owner and/ or authorized user, the Credit Union may terminate all electronic services, suspend or close any account, require a court order to act, or require all parties to agree in writing to any transaction concerning the account.

7. Member Liability. You are solely responsible for all transfers you authorize using any Services under this Agreement. If you permit other persons to use your Access Code or Device and initiate transactions with this Service, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your Accounts. However, you must notify us immediately if you believe anyone has used your Access Code and accessed your accounts without your authorization, or if you believe that an electronic funds transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You must report unauthorized ACH transactions the business day following the date the transaction posts to your account.

For Visa Debit Card transactions, if you promptly notify us of your lost or stolen card, you may not be liable for any losses provided you notify us promptly and were not grossly negligent (for example keeping your PIN with your Card is grossly negligent) or fraudulent in handling your Visa Debit Card and you provide us with a written statement regarding your unauthorized Visa Debit Card claim.

If you believe your Card or PIN has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission, call:

Rivermark Community Credit Union
14405 Meyers Rd. Oregon City, Oregon 97045

8. Business Days. Our business days are Monday through Friday, excluding Federal Holidays.

9. Fees and Charges. The fees and charges for the electronic services are outlined below. Fees and charges may be changed from time to time. We will notify you of any changes as required by law.

a. ATM Fees. A transaction fee will be assessed when you request a withdrawal or balance inquiry at an ATM as set forth in the Fee Schedule. The fees may be changed from time to time, and we will notify you of any changes as required by law. You authorize us to debit one of your deposit accounts for any ATM fee in accordance with your Card Agreement and Disclosure Statement. Please note that when you use an ATM not owned by us, a fee may be charged by the ATM operator or any network used to complete the transaction, and you may be charged a fee for a balance inquiry even if you do not complete a funds transfer.

b. Currency Transaction Fee. Purchases and cash withdrawals made in foreign currencies will be debited from your account in U.S. dollars. The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is a rate selected by Visa from a range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa itself receives or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The exchange rate used on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date. A fee of 1% of the amount of the transaction, calculated in U.S. dollars, will be imposed on all foreign transactions, including purchases, cash advances and credits to your account. A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete, or a merchant completes on your card outside of the U.S., U.S. military bases, territories, embassies or consulates. A fee will also apply to purchase transactions made with merchants located in foreign countries, even if the transaction is initiated from within the U.S.

c. Online Banking Services. There is no fee for Online Banking services.

d. Mobile Banking Services. There is no fee for Mobile Banking services.

e. Bill Pay Service. There is no fee for Bill Pay services, however fees may apply for expedited bill payments as set forth on the Fee Schedule.

10. Transaction and Account Information.

a. Statement Information. Transactions submitted through Online or Mobile Banking, Bill Pay, or external transfer services will be recorded on your monthly statement sent to you by mail or e-Statements if you have requested e-statements. If you only have a savings account and did not request or process any Electronic Funds Transfers, you will receive a statement quarterly.

b. Preauthorized Credits and Direct Deposits. If you have a direct deposit made to your account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same source and you do not receive a receipt (such as a pay stub), you can call us at 503.626.6600 to find out whether the deposit has been made or use Telephone Teller or Online Banking to confirm direct deposits and review your account activity.

c. Terminal Receipt. You should receive a receipt at the time you make any transfer or withdrawal from your account(s) using an ATM, POS terminal, or a Visa debit transaction with a participating merchant, except some electronic terminals will not provide receipts for transactions of $15 or less.

d. Account Information Disclosure. We will maintain the confidentiality and privacy of your account information in accordance with our Privacy Policy as stated on our website at www.rivermarkcu.org. However, we may disclose information to third parties about your account or the transactions you submit in the following limited circumstances:

- As necessary to complete transfers;
- To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
- If your account is eligible for emergency cash and/or emergency card replacement services and you request such services, you agree that we may provide personal information about you and your account that is necessary to provide you with the requested services(s);
- To comply with government agencies or court orders;
- If you give us your express written permission.

11. Preauthorized Electronic Fund Transfers.

a. Authorization to Merchants. By providing your account number to any merchant or third party not already listed as an authorized user on your account, you authorize all electronic funds transfers out of your account initiated by that merchant or third party.

b. Stop Payment Rights. If you have arranged in advance to allow a third party to make regular electronic fund transfers out of your account(s) for money you owe them, you may stop payment of these preauthorized transfers (excluding Online Bill Pay). You must notify the Credit Union orally or in writing at any time up to three (3) business days before the scheduled date of a preauthorized transfer. The Credit Union may require you to provide written confirmation of the stop payment order within fourteen (14) days of any oral notification. If we do require the written confirmation, the oral stop payment order shall cease to be binding fourteen (14) days after it has been made.

c. Notice of Varying Amounts. If these payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay is required to tell you ten (10) days before each payment, when the payment will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.

d. Liability for Failure to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers. If you order us to stop one of these payments at least three (3) business days before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so unless the reason for our failure was outside of our control, we will be liable for your losses or damages, up to the amount of the transfer.

12. Credit Union Liability for Electronic Services. If we do not complete a transaction to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. Our sole responsibility for an error in a transaction will be to correct the error and in no case will we be liable for any indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages. In states that do not allow the exclusion or limitation of such damages, our liability is limited to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Credit Union will not be liable for the following:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have sufficient funds in your account to complete the transaction, your account is inactive, or the transaction would exceed the credit limit on your line of credit, if applicable.
- If you used the wrong account or Access code, you have not properly followed any applicable service or Credit Union user instructions for making Online or Mobile Banking, Online Bill Pay, or external transactions.
- If your personal computer malfunctioned or the internet service or phone lines were not working properly, or the Credit Union computer system was not working properly, and such problem(s) should have been apparent when you attempted your transaction.
- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, telecommunication outages or strikes, equipment or power failure) prevent making the transaction.
- If the funds in your account are subject to an administrative hold, legal process or other claim.
- If you have not given the Credit Union complete, correct and current instructions so the Credit Union can process the transaction.
- If, through no fault of ours, an Online Bill Pay, Online or Mobile Banking or funds transfer transaction does not reach a particular payee due to changes in the payee address, account number or otherwise; the time you allow for payment delivery was insufficient; payment is lost in the mail or the payee failed to process a payment correctly or in a timely manner and a fee, penalty, or interest charge is assessed against you.
- If an error was caused by a system beyond the Credit Union's control such as a telecommunications system, an Internet Service Provider, any computer virus or problems related to software not provided by the Credit Union.
- If there are other exceptions as established by the Credit Union.

13. Mobile and Online Deposit Services. Mobile and Online Deposit Service is an automated delivery system that allows you to electronically transmit an electronic image (or captured digital data) of a check or item to us for posting to a designated account. You will be asked to accept the terms of the Mobile Deposit Services agreement the first time you log into the service and each time there is a change to the terms of service. Your continued use of the Mobile and Online Service is your acceptance to any changes we may make to the service in the future.

a. Operation of Service.

i. Mobile and Online Deposit Capture Process. If we approve the Mobile and Online Deposit Service for you, you must use your password with your Login to access your accounts. You may photograph or scan an image of checks with your mobile device or personal computer creating an electronic image and you may transmit the electronic image that the Credit Union will deposit to your account. The Credit Union may, in its discretion, convert items meeting the Credit Union's required standards into substitute checks to facilitate the deposit and collection of such items. You agree that the manner in which checks are cleared or presented for payment shall be determined by the Credit Union, in its sole discretion. We reserve the right to select the clearing agents through which we clear checks.

ii. Funds Availability. Funds from items deposited through the Service will be available in accordance with the Credit Union's Funds Availability Policy disclosure, as amended from time to time, which is incorporated herein by reference. You agree that the imaging and transmitting of checks alone does not constitute receipt by Credit Union. Also, acknowledgment of receipt or delivery does not constitute an acknowledgment by Credit Union that the transmission of a check or items does not contain errors or that funds will be available. Checks deposited through Mobile Deposit are not received by the Credit Union until we have acknowledged receipt and provided credit to your account. Checks must be received by 2:00 pm Pacific Time, Monday through Friday, to be considered received that Business Day. You understand that any amount credited to your account for checks deposited using the Mobile and Online Deposit Service is a provisional credit and you agree to indemnify us against any loss the Credit Union suffers because of the acceptance of the remotely deposited check.

iii. Deposit Limitations. You may use Mobile and Online Deposit to deposit checks in any dollar amount.

iv. Deposit Acceptance. You agree that Credit Union may at any time, in its sole discretion, refuse to accept deposits of checks from you via Mobile Deposit or Online Deposit session. In the event that the Service is interrupted or is otherwise unavailable, you may deposit checks in-person at a Credit Union branch or via night drop or mail or other contractually acceptable method.

b. Member Account.

i. Member Account. You must designate a Credit Union savings or checking as the settlement account to be used for the purposes of settling transactions requested in connection with the Mobile and Online Deposit Service. We will provide you with details of each specific transaction. You will be responsible for reviewing and balancing of any settlement account.

ii. Responsibility for Check Endorsement. For all mobile check deposits, you must endorse the original paper check with your name and providing: "FOR RIVERMARK COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION MOBILE DEPOSIT ONLY".
